The following documents have been considered for the purpose of this report:

D1 = US 2002/0085284 A1(Kazuhiro Nakamura),2002.07.04

Claims Claims

D2 = US 2002/0187324 A1(LINTEC CORPORATION),2002.12.12

D3 = JP 2001-51610 A(MITSUBISHI KAGAKU CO.,LTD),2001.02.23

D4 = WO 01/81466 A1(DSM N.V & JSR CORPORATION & JAPAN FINE COATINGS CO.,LTD),2001.11.01

Claim 1-12

The subject matter of claim 1 does not appear to involve an inventive step in view of the document 1(D1) cited in the ISR and the document 2-4(D2-4) cited in the same. The D1 is considered to represent the closest prior art for the subject matter of claim 1. D1 discloses that an antireflection film comprising a transparent support, at least one hard coat layer and low reflactive index layer, in this order, wherein the hard coat layer includes a polymerized product of a polyfunctional acrylate monomer having no oxide adduct.

D2-D4 disclose that the hard coat layer includes a polymerized product of an ethylene oxide or propylene oxide adduct of a polyfunctional acrylate monomer and a polyfunctional acrylate monomer having no oxide adduct.

Technical features the hard coat layer and the hard coat layer, disclosed in D1 and D2-4 respectively, have the same function and are related to similar technical fields. Therefore, the skilled person in the art would easily conceive the idea of substituting the feature of the hard coat layer in D2-4 for the feature of the hard coat layer disclosed in D1.

The technical features which are suggested by claims 2-4 respectively are disclosed in D2 or D3.

The technical features which are suggested by claims 5-12 respectively are disclosed in D1.
